

The National University of Lesotho

BA/B.Ed Examinations

ELE4305: World Literature

June 2023

Marks 100

Time 3 Hours

Instructions:

- Answer any four (4) questions.
 - All questions carry 25 marks each
 - Marks will be rewarded for precision in style and correct grammar usage
1. Discuss any five lessons of the novel Pride and Prejudice and say how they are still relevant to Lesotho today.
 2. In Dublin, how does alcoholism affect the lives of characters? Can you find a social occasion where drinking is not involved?
 3. How does Priestley present some of the differences between the older and younger generations? How are these differences a picturesque of Lesotho today?
 4. Demonstrate how successfully the idea of collective responsibility is explored or not explored in An Inspector Calls.
 5. Write a well-organised essay in which you analyse how any two poems' organization, diction and figurative language prepare the reader for the speaker's last word or death declaration.
Poems
'If', 'All the World's Stage', 'Five Ways to Kill A Man', 'I Like Americans', 'I Like Canadians', and 'To Everything there is a Season'
 6. 'Young people think old people are stupid, old people know young people to be so'.
Anonymous

In line with World Literature, interrogate this statement in any manner, to and from any angle you choose